

ALL ANGELS' CHURCH NURSERY STAFF
(updated: January 2019)

Job Description

All Angels' Church, located on the Upper West Side, is seeking a nursery worker to join our team in providing care for children ages 6 months to 3 years old during Sunday services. This person should have a genuine heart for small children and experience in working with them. They would be responsible for helping to ensure a safe, professional, nurturing and enjoyable environment in which small children can experience the love of God. This is facilitated through play, Bible stories and sharing a snack together.

Three nursery staff members are present in the mornings to care for 8-10 children; two in the evenings caring for 3-6 children. Our rate is $20/hour.

Two to four Sunday mornings per month from 9:30am-1pm, and/or
Two to four Sunday evenings per month, from 4:30pm - 6:30pm.

Job requirements:

Alertness and vigilant observation are paramount, along with a commitment to listening to very young children, enabling them to find their own ability, and nurturing their emerging independence. Timely arrival and dependability are also important.

Note: Nursery staff workers do not change diapers.

If interested, please send cover letter and resume to Amy Hitotsubashi at nursery@allangelschurch.com.
